UNITY's CODE OF CONDUCT

UNITY aims to provide a respectful and welcoming environment for all people using our facility.

All persons are expected to behave in a manner consistent with this policy. The laws in the province of Ontario (including the Human Rights Code) apply to how we conduct our programs and services. They equally apply to how staff and members behave while using the facility.

All members are responsible for adhering to health and safety policies and procedures that aim to provide a safe environment free from discrimination, harassment, and violence. We are committed to upholding the dignity and respect of every member and staff member.

UNITY reserves the right to suspend the membership privileges, without refund, of any person, or to remove from the premises any person who:

1. Aids or abets in the unauthorized entrance of a non-member.
2. Is physically or verbally abusive to any other person or staff.
3. Deliberately causes damage to any property.
4. Uses profanity while on the premises.
5. Fails to identify themselves if asked by staff or fails to show their access card if requested by staff.
6. Fails to make timely membership payments.
7. Harasses other participants, members, or staff.
8. Engages in theft or other illegal behaviour including illegal substance use.
